WARRANTY RETURN FORM

I understand that proper packing for shipping and insurance is my responsibility. I have properly packed in the original packaging or have used a similar type of packaging or have had the unit professionally packed for shipping. I also understand that if the unit arrives damaged that Everlast is not responsible for said damage. I acknowledge that Everlast may, at its discretion, repack the unit at my expense if packaging is deemed insufficient or too damaged for safe return to me. I understand that improper packing can lead to shipping damage and that my assigned shipping carrier will not insure or pay for warranty items that are improperly packed. Furthermore, I understand that Everlast will not assume any liability for shipping damage occurring from the re-use of my packaging material. I also understand that Everlast may document/photograph package and contents condition upon arrival at Everlast's facilities.
